SURETY

Surety insurance (bonds) is a contract in which an insurer is obliged to pay an insured party for losses suffered as a consequence of the principal not complying with its legal and/or contractual obligations towards the insured party.

CUSTOMS BONDS

COVERS:

- Temporary imports
- Temporary exports
- Inland transits
- Lack of certificate of origin
- Large investment projects
- Summary proceedings.

DESCRIPTION:

This guarantee that goods imported into the country under this condition shall be re-exported within the time frame established by customs. Should this not occur, the goods shall be nationalized, and the respective fees shall be paid, therefore this bond shall be affected should the principle not pay the fees.

CONTRACTUAL SURETY

COVERS:

Bid bonds
Performance bonds
Advance payments
Repair funds

BID BONDS

The validity of the bid presented in a tendering process is guaranteed up to the signing of the contract in case of appointment. The guarantee is affected when the bidder does not honour the conditions presented in the proposal or refuses to sign the contract.

PERFORMANCE BOND

The compliance with all the obligations to do or deliver something set forth in a contract are guaranteed. Payment; tax; indemnity and confidentiality obligations are not covered.

ADVANCE PAYMENTS

The correct use of funds advanced to a contractor as part of a contractual obligation is guaranteed.

REPAIR FUNDS

This cover guarantees the compensation in case of possible hidden flaws that are identified after the definitive conclusion of an obligation. The coverage period for this exposure depends on what is contractually determined but is usually between 6 and 12 months.

RENTALS

COVERAGE:

Commercial and private rentals

DESCRIPTION:

Guarantees the payment of rental fees.

JUDICIAL BONDS

COVERAGE:

Precautionary procedures substitution
Cautionary

PRECAUTIONARY PROCEDURES SUBSTITUTION

This bond can substitute a precautionary procedure suffered by a defendant in a commercial or civil lawsuit, and therefore liberates any and all assets affected by such a procedure.

CAUTIONARY

This bond is must be presented by party that has requested the enforcement of a precautionary procedure, and its function is to cover possible damages and setbacks resulting from having wrongfully requested such procedure.

ENVIRONMENTAL BONDS

COVERAGE:

Exposure to environmental damage.

ENVIRONMENTAL DAMAGE

Environmental bonds cover damages to the environment (ground and water) by potentially contaminating activities that pose a threat to human health, the destruction of a natural resource or its deterioration that limits its capability to auto regenerate.
